

2018 FALL/WINTER
SCHEDULE

MURDER ON THE HIGH SEAS
January 26, April 27

As we set sail on a sunny voyage, things turn dark when cruise ship, The Grande Illusion collides with pirate ship, The Passing Wind. Nothing good can happen following a time warp phenomenon when history collides with present day. Costume suggestions: cruise wear, pirates.

DIAMONDS, DEATH & SECOND CHANCES

February 23, May 25

Lady Ophelia is hosting a benefit auction of her fine jewels in aid of world peace. James Blonde has been sent in to protect the peace diamond, if he can. Costume suggestions: beehive hairdo, peace signs and bell bottoms.

THESE SHOES ARE KILLING ME
March 23, June 22

This story is set in 1889 near London England and is loosely based on the legend of Jack the Ripper, with all the comedic appeal of a typical Murder For Hire story. Costume suggestions: top hats and petticoats.

Every month Murder For Hire gets away with Murder at the Marienbad Restaurant and you are invited to join them for an “evening that’s to die for.”

As well as a puzzling mystery, the evening provides a lot of fun with everyone encouraged to participate as much or as little as they like.

The scripts are rotated each month so you can come many times and see a new production on each occasion.

The Marienbad provides the perfect atmosphere for these unique evenings. In an intimate, fireplace-lit dining room, we offer a delicious three-course meal to enjoy with the mystery show.

PRICE: $48.49 per person includes salad, main course, coffee/tea, dessert, gratuity, and taxes.

New Year’s Eve: $74.95 per person includes special four-course meal, gratuity, and taxes.

TIME: Arrive 7:15 p.m.
Dinner: 7:45 p.m.
